

Yaron Avitzur

Sick Kids Children's Hospital, Canada

Session 11: Transplant Registries: A: IRTA Pediatric Intestinal Rehabilitation Registry Presentation; July 3, 2023; 3:15pm-3:30pm

Dr. Avitzur is a Professor of Paediatrics at the University of Toronto, the Director of the Group for Improvement of Intestinal Function and Treatment (GIFT) program and the Medical Director, of the Joint Program in Intestine Transplantation at UHN and SickKids hospital.

Dr. Avitzur leads and is an active contributor to national and international groups involved in policy and guideline development in intestinal rehabilitation and transplantation. He serves as a Secretary-Treasurer in the Intestinal Rehabilitation and Transplantation Association (IRTA). In 2018 he established and is the current director of the IRTA International Intestinal Failure Registry (IIFR), a world-wide platform to study pediatric intestinal failure. His research work is within the fields of intestinal failure, GI transplantation and congenital diarrhea. Dr. Avitzur published more than 130 papers in prominent journals and textbooks.

CIRTA XVIII
CHICAGO

JUNE 30 - JULY 3, 2023

International Rehabilitation & Transplantation Association

a section of
TTS
The Transplantation Society

